

ORGANIZATION IS BLOCKED BY INSURGENTS

PROGRESSIVES IN HOUSE KEEP WORD IN SPEAKER FIGHT

Adjourn Till Noon Today When Effort Will Again be Made to Elect Gillett—Garrett of Tennessee Runs Close Race—Seventeen
Votes Cast for Cooper—Take Four Ballots

WASHINGTON, Dec. 3.—Republican insurgents prevented the organization today of the Sixty-Eighth Congress.

Hardly had the new house and senate convened at noon before the Progressive group in the house made good its threat to block the election of a speaker. Four ballots were taken without result and the house adjourned until noon tomorrow when Republican organization leaders will renew their effort to re-elect Speaker Gillett.

In contrast with the storm in the house was an uneventful forty-five minutes session of the senate. Altho an organization fight there is in the background, there was no effort to force it today and there were indications that it would be deferred until after President Coolidge has delivered his first annual message to congress.

The president cannot deliver his message, however, until the house is organized, nor can the new congress function. Some leaders said that even the senate would be unable to transact any business other than that of receiving and acting upon nominations and treaties, which is solely a senate function.

TRAINS STOPPED AUTOMATICALLY BY NEW DEVICE

Will Make Operation
One Hundred Per Cent Perfect

CHICAGO, Dec. 3.—A new safety device that will automatically stop a speeding train against which a block has been set, even tho the engineer may not be in the cab, was announced today by officials of the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific railway company which has installed the device on its double track mainline between Chicago and Rock Island, Ill.

The appliance, known as the Regan Device, railroad officials declared makes the operation of trains 100 per cent safe as far as the danger of collision is concerned.

The device is operated in conjunction with the semaphore block signals an electric third rail about 80 feet long being located at each electric block signal. This rail just outside the right hand rail of the track is connected with the block signal. When the red light is set against a train the rail is in such a position that a "shoe" on the tender of the locomotive comes in contact with the third rail, the "shoe" being connected with the air brake system which is set automatically when contact is made to bring the train to a full stop or slow speed as the signals indicate.

Official tests were made a few days ago.

The engineer of the test train given orders to try to beat the signal and opened his throttle and charged at 45 miles an hour in the face of a danger signal. The train was stopped despite the engineers efforts to keep it in motion.

Peoria, Ill., Dec. 3.—Safe wreckers raided the downtown district here last night, attacking five safes, and escaping with an undetermined sum of money.

PRIZES AWARDED TO CONTESTANTS AT STOCK SHOW

Three Grand Championship Medals Won
by Illinois Men

CHICAGO, Dec. 3.—The best hay in the world this year was grown by Arthur W. Jewett, Jr., of Mason, Michigan, judges at the International Livestock Exposition and Grain and Hay Show decided today.

Jewett took the grand championship prize with an exhibit of timothy. He was also the winner last year with a similar variety. The reserve championship went to Charles H. Howitt of Randolph, Wisconsin, with an exhibit of alfalfa.

Sweepstakes in the wheat exhibit was won by H. G. L. King of Fenn, Alberta, Canada, who exhibited the Marquis variety. Clyde Norton of Columbus, Montana, took the reserve championship with an exhibit of the hard red winter variety.

The soy bean sweepstakes was attacked by Paul Butlin of Seymour, Illinois, with an exhibit of the Manchou variety.

The University of California took the grand champion for wethers in the sheep judging, its winning entrant being a South-down.

The reserve grand champion went to the Iroquois Farm of Cooperstown, N. Y.

Champion Shorthorn.

Maxwallon Monarch, Shorthorn bull entered by John Alexander & Sons of Aurora, Ill., winner of 60 grand titles and first prize winner this year at the Central States Fair, state fairs of Illinois, Michigan, Indiana and Ohio and at the Kankakee, Ill., exposition, took the ribbon in the Shorthorn bull breeding class for entries three years old and over.

Rollie Boy, owned by H. P. Olson of Altoona, Ill., was declared champion steer in the Aberdeen Angus fat classes and Buster, nominated by James L. Lemon of New London, Mo., was judged the champion fat Polled Shorthorn.

Chalk Hill Model, entered by Penn State College, was named champion among the grades and cross breeds.

Four class and three reserve grand championships were awarded to Canada in the sheep division.

Iowa State College won the fat Oxford prize with a yearling and the University of Nebraska took the hog judging. Iowa State led in the fat Chester Whites and the University of Minnesota won among the fat Berkshires.

L. E. Peterson of Victor, Montana, won the Durbin wheat championship with LeRoy Kirby, Simms, Montana, the reserve.

Bumper, University of Wisconsin Hereford, took the Blue in the junior yearling class of grade and cross bred steers in the group of senior calves the University of Nebraska scored twice, taking first honors with a Hereford bull and second with an Angus.

Carl Rosentfeld of Kelly, Iowa, won first prize on a grade Angus in the grade steer herd of three head division while the grade Shorthorns displayed by Sni-Bar farm of Missouri took second.

Les Pedaza owned by the farm of the same name Hickory Valley, Tenn., won first in the two year old class and in the senior yearlings contest.

While leaders of both the Republican organization and the insurgents declared immediately after the close of today's session that the fight would go on tomorrow, there were signs that a break might come before another overnight adjournment. The Progressive bloc met tonight to canvass the situation and determine their future course.

No Compromise

Representative Longworth, the majority leader declared there would be no compromise with the insurgents as a group, but that organization leaders would treat with the individual members just the same as with any others of their party.

Representative Nelson, of Wisconsin, chairman of the Progressive bloc emphasized that the fight of his organization was not against Speaker Gillett as an individual but was being waged solely with the view to forcing the "old guard" leaders to give the house opportunity to amend its rules when a vote comes on their adoption which will be as soon as the speaker and other officers are elected.

While declaring that the Democrats in the house would give solid support to Representative Garrett of Tennessee, for speaker as they did on the four ballots to date, some leaders of the minority party said that if the Republican insurgents were seeking only to have the house given an opportunity to vote on amendments to the rules they would have no difficulty in accomplishing their purpose.

The Democrats, these leaders said, also desired changes in the rules and today's balloting showed that their votes, added to those of the Progressives constituted a majority.

Thruout the balloting today the Republican insurgents cast 17 votes for Cooper, Wisconsin, one of the leaders of their movement. This number of itself constitutes the balance of power both on organization and legislation but they asserted that in addition they could command several of the five who steadily voted for Madden of Illinois, chairman of the appropriations committee.

On the first ballot Gillett received 193 votes—10 short of a majority and Garrett 195. On the second ballot, Gillett's total was 195, or 11 less than a majority and Garrett's was 193. The third ballot saw Garrett force ahead with 196 votes to 195 for Gillett. Announcement of this vote was greeted with wild cheers from the minority side.

The pendulum swung back to Gillett on the fourth and final ballot. He received 197 votes, 11 short of the necessary majority, while Garrett polled 196.

Victor Berger, of Wisconsin, the only Socialist in congress took no part in the balloting, announcing on each roll call that he voted "present." Madden cast his vote each time for Gillett, who voted "present" on the first ballot, but did not vote thereafter.

Garrett and Cooper consistently voted "present."

Pres. Coolidge Remits Craig Jail Sentence

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 3.—Without condoning the offense, President Coolidge today remitted the sixty-day jail sentence imposed on Charles L. Craig, comptroller of New York City, by Federal Judge Mayer for contempt of court.

The chief executive acted in the case—one of the most widely discussed contempt cases in recent years—upon receipt of a report from Attorney General Daugherty with reference to an application for pardon for Craig made by Senator Copeland of New York and by members of the board of estimate and apportionment for the City of New York.

Mr. Daugherty in effect recommended against the issuance of a pardon and urged remission of sentence "irrespective of what Craig, by his arrogance personally then and now justly deserves."

Because execution of the sentence might have an injurious effect upon the administration of the financial affairs of New York City, because the sentence might be considered as too severe for one holding Craig's official position and because, altho thru Craig's own fault, no court had an opportunity to review the case on its merits. The attorney general fully supported Judge Mayer, whose views were considered, in that whatever action was taken "it should not have the effect of approving, or seeming to approve, the conduct of Craig toward the court and should not be in any sense, a vindication."

Mr. Daugherty in his report to the president reviewed the case in detail from its origin, setting forth how Craig after Judge Mayer had denied his application for appointment as co-receiver in the liquidation of the affairs of the Brooklyn Rapid Transit Railway company, wrote a letter to Lewis Nixon, New York, public service commission in which he declared the judge had denied the city of New York access to information and had refused to put the city on an equal footing with the private interests active in the receivership. Publication of this letter resulted in the contempt proceedings.

FARMER-LABOR PARTY REFUSE TO CONSIDER FORD FOR PRESIDENT

National Secretary is Ordered Out of Conference

DES MOINES, Iowa, Dec. 3.—A movement to enlist Iowa farmers and organized labor in the movement to nominate Henry Ford for the presidency was rebuffed here today when Francis G. Cutler of Boone, Iowa, secretary-treasurer of the National Farmer-Labor party, was ordered out of a Farmer-Labor conference at which he attempted to present a plea for support of Ford.

Mr. Cutler had called a meeting of Iowa Ford-for-President boosters for today, but when he arrived he found only a handful of representatives present so after a conference with them he sought audience with the co-operative legislative committee of Iowa, a group of representatives of organized labor and the Iowa Farmers' Union which was in session to consider matters incidental to its legislative interests. He asked for and said he had been obtained, permission to address the committee in behalf of the Ford-for-President movement but when he sought the floor of the committee meeting Chairman J. A. Stedman of Hawarden, Iowa, suggested that the committee was not interested in Mr. Ford's candidacy. Mr. Cutler sought to proceed with his talk but several delegates protested and when President J. C. Lewis, of the Iowa Federation of Labor offered a resolution ordering Mr. Cutler from the meeting it passed by a large majority.

DOHENY STATES LARGE QUANTITY OF OIL IS WASTED

Under Policy of Secretary Daniels Many Barrels Lost

WASHINGTON, Dec. 3.—(AP)—Failure to proceed with development of the National Petroleum reserves would have cost the navy 225,000,000 barrels of oil thru drainage and otherwise, Edward L. Doheny, Veteran oil operator told the senate public lands committee.

Endorsing the leasing of the reserves being investigated by the committee as to the California field, Mr. Doheny said the "policy pursued under Secretary Daniels" resulted in the loss of at least 100,000,000 barrels. He recalled that he had warned the same committee in hearings six years ago of the danger of depletion of the reserves.

Senator Walsh, Democrat, Montana, called attention to a report of the bureau of mines fixing the loss to the navy, at 11,000,000 barrels, of which only 5,000,000 was said to have been sustained since the passage of the leasing act and asked whether the bureau had the same information available to witness.

"No sir," said Mr. Doheny, "no man living has the same information on the subject that I have."

The Pan-American Petroleum company of which he is head, already has $14,000,000 invested under its lease of reserve number one in California. Mr. Doheny declared, was planning an immediate issue of $15,000,000 in bonds to finance drilling there during the next year, and expects to expend up to $50,000,000 in a few years.

"What will you make in profit on the lease?" asked Senator Lenroot, Republican, Wisconsin.

"We will have had luck if we don't make $100,000,000," Mr. Doheny explained, however, that this was a gross profit and would comprise the various profits to be made on each of the transactions between drilling and sale to the retail trade, thru the many years he expected the lease to run. He estimated that half the final price of oil was profit.

Under questioning by Chairman Smoot, the witness said he had contributed $75,000 to the last Democratic National campaign fund and $25,000 to the 1920 fund of the Republican party, altho a life-long Democrat. He explained the latter contribution as having been impelled by his disapproval of a reference made by one of the candidates which seemed to reflect personally upon the other. The money was spent by his direction for the purchase of space in New York newspapers in which was published a refutation of the allegation. Mr. Doheny said, the entire action being voluntary on his part.

"You did this simply to show your disgust at the unfair method of attack," asked Senator Norris, Republican, Nebraska.

"Yes sir," responded Mr. Doheny.

"Then I consider it a pity that here are not more like you in our public life," continued the Nebraska senator.

NAVY DEPARTMENT PLAN NORTH POLE TRIP BY AIR SOON

President Coolidge in Endorsing Move Says
Project is One of Great Practical Value—
Route, Date, and Method of Procedure to be Decided Later—Dirigible May be Used

WASHINGTON, Dec. 3.—A dash by air for the North Pole will be launched by the Navy Department during the coming summer. Secretary Denby announced today that President Coolidge had given his specific approval of the project as "of great practical value."

The route, date and method of procedure for the trip, however, are still to be decided, a special board of naval officers headed by Rear-Admiral William A. Moffett, chief of naval aeronautics, having been appointed by Secretary Denby to prepare a detailed plan.

The project grew out of the desire of Robert A. Bartlett, the explorer who sailed with Rear-Admiral Robert E. Peary in the expedition of 1908-9 which saw the stars and stripes raised over the North Pole, again to make that journey.

Mr. Bartlett proposed to Secretary Denby some months ago that the Steamer Roosevelt, now in commercial service be repurchased and equipped for Polar work.

Discussion of the possibilities of a new polar expedition was immediately begun in the navy department. It was pointed out by naval aircraft experts, however, that if a new drifting expedition were organized by navy, others, perhaps under another flag, might attempt and complete a journey to the pole by air before the Roosevelt party could make half the distance. The decision to employ naval aircraft followed.

Bartlett Recalled

Mr. Bartlett, who is a lieutenant commander in the naval reserve force, for the purpose of the polar expedition has already been called to active service in that rank and appointed to the special planning board of which he will also be recorded.

Admiral Moffett's board has all government records of previous Arctic explorations, as well as information that the American Geographic Society has furnished. On the study of this data, as well as records of whether conditions in the Arctic will be found a recommendation as to whether the last lap of the journey shall be undertaken in airplanes equipped with skills for landing on the ice, or with the great navy dirigible Shenandoah.

Naval officials feel that the Shenandoah in many ways would be the most desirable ship for the dash, particularly because the airship can hover over the Arctic Regions while motion picture records are made or scientific data otherwise obtained. There is no disposition however to risk the Shenandoah unless there is every reasonable prospect that she can successfully accomplish the mission.

Coolidge Approves

In writing Secretary Denby under date of November 20, approving the project, President Coolidge expressed the belief that it would be "carried thru with the thoroughness and efficiency which marks every project which the navy undertakes."

The president's letter follows: "I desire to confirm by this letter," President Coolidge said, "the verbal authorization which I have already given you to proceed with the organization of a naval Arctic Expedition which will start in the coming year. The record of the army and navy in this line of endeavor is one of which the American people will always be proud, for it is marked by a spirit of heroism and devotion which is unequalled in the history of exploration."

"As it fell to the navy to achieve the final goal, thru the efforts of Admiral Peary, it is eminently fitting that the navy should continue the work, and I believe that the expedition which you have in view will be of great practical value and will be carried thru with that thoroughness and efficiency which marks every project which the navy undertakes."

COOLIDGE TAKES LEADERSHIP OF BOYS AND GIRLS

Thinks Club Great Importance to Agricultural Future

CHICAGO, Dec. 3.—Leadership of 700,000 farmer boys and girls have been accepted by President Calvin Coolidge, it was announced to night by G. L. Noble, executive secretary at the second annual Boys' and Girls' Club banquet here.

In accepting the honorary chairmanship of the club, President Coolidge declared that probably no activity is of more importance to the future of agriculture than the Boys' and Girls' Club work.

The 1500 boy and girl members attending the banquet attended the dedication of their own new club house at the Union Stock Yards, held in connection with the International Livestock Show.

"In a few short years the boys and the girls whose homes are now on farms will be the men and the women of the nation," President Coolidge's letter of acceptance stated.

"It long has been recognized that we derive some of the most virile manhood and womanhood from the farms and whether they remain in the country or move to the towns and cities their early training and associations always have a marked influence upon their thoughts and activities as men and women."

"It is of the utmost importance therefore, that we all take an active interest in the clubs to which the farm boys and girls belong. I have been personally interested in the growth of these clubs and their present membership of over 700,000 is a source of great satisfaction to me. We must double and treble that number for there are 8,000,000 children on the farms of this country."

"Probably no activity is of more importance to the future standing prosperity and social position of agriculture than the boys' and girls' farm clubs. Their activities warrant the belief that they will greatly aid in the solution of many of the problems of farm life and it gives me very great pleasure to accept the honorary chairmanship of the national committee of boys' and girls' club work."

A THOUGHT

A fool despiseth his father's instruction; but he that regardeth reproof is prudent.—Prov. 15:5.

It is always safe to learn even from our enemies, seldom safe to instruct even our friends.—Colton.

Secretary of War Weeks is applying to the principal of more business in government in a very practical way. The supply officers of the Army make expenditures of many millions of dollars annually, and Mr. Weeks believes they should be thoroughly grounded in business matters. Eight of those officers are to be selected and sent to the Harvard School of Business Administration for a two-year course. Upon graduation they will establish schools of their own in the supply division of the Army, and communicate what they have learned to their comrades. Such a plan should have been put in operation years ago. Had the vast supplies of the war period been bought and distributed according to well recognized rules of business, hundreds of millions of dollars would have been saved the and taxpayers, our soldiers would have been more contented, and the war would have been prosecuted with far greater efficiency.

THE WATER QUESTION

The Chamber of Commerce forum tonight will consider the Jacksonville water question. It is to be hoped that as a result of this discussion something definite will be done toward a movement to provide the extensions that the water system needs. It has been explained from time to time that a larger water main is needed, connecting the plant and the distributive system; that extensions are needed at the plant, and that repairs should be made at the distributing reservoir in order to prevent the losses of water that are now occurring.

This program of improvements, urgently needed, will cost more money than the city can borrow upon its own credit in the usual way. So there is need for a plan of finance to be worked out. Judging from the spirit with which citizens entered into the original water project a few years since, there will be little difficulty in securing a union of effort if a rational plan is worked out and presented.

LAND PATENT ISSUES 1922-3.

It will be a cause for surprise to many people to read the report of the Commission of the General Land Office showing that during the year ended June 30, 1923, the United States Government issued patents to 9,393,000 acres of public land, and 6,300,000 of this under the homestead laws. Most of us have had the idea that the day of homesteading is long since past. We have thought that there is no longer a frontier. But the records confute that notion and prove that there are still large numbers of hardy and courageous people who go out into the remote regions to try to carve homes for themselves out of the wilderness.

In the twelve months just alluded to, the General Land office not only patented more than nine million acres of land, on which the applicants had completed the government's requirements as to residence, payment of fees, etc., but it received applications for more than 6,000,000 additional acres which will be patented in some future years, if the applications are successful in their contest with drought, cloudbursts, frost, and insects.

All this is agreeable news to the country, for it means home-building. It means more than that. It means that people are undertaking to make crops grow on land that has been comparatively unproductive in the past—crops which will help feed the people of the United States and of the rest of the world, crops which will add to our national wealth, help build our cities, maintain public schools, improve public highways, and add

Mayor Endorses City Plan

I want to commend the City Plan to the citizens of Jacksonville because I believe it is a step forward and in the right direction.

Building a city under a plan is building and growing in a proper manner.

A city planner is to a city what an architect is to a large building.

The plan will interest the citizens in an orderly arrangement of all future developments. It will save residential districts from destruction and depreciation, by prohibiting objectionable building.

It is a plan to work to, to think of, and to study for generations to come.

Had we had a city plan, we no doubt would not have been bothered with some of our mistakes of today.

E. E. CRABTREE,
Mayor.

AT THE GRAND THURSDAY

Kilbourn Gordon, Inc., will present at the Grand Thursday night, "The Cat and the Canary," the famous exciting play, which recently ended its second season in New York City and is still the reigning sensation throughout the country.

"The Cat and the Canary" is by John Willard and the splendid production to be seen here was staged by Ira Hards.

There are thrills a plenty in "The Cat and the Canary," mystery, deep and absorbing, enthralling suspense, delicious comedy and beautiful romance—a rare combination of sensations that easily made this unique play an immediate and sensational success.

The plot of "The Cat and the Canary" revolves about the strange happenings that follow the reading of a will made by an eccentric millionaire who died twenty years before the opening of the play. From that moment the sanity and even the life of the little heroine appear to be threatened at every turn she takes. Suspicion attaches first to one and then to another of the men, interesting characters by whom she is surrounded and the solution of the mystery is as anxious as the ending is happy.

ORGANIZATION IS BLOCKED BY INSURGENTS

sota; Wefald, Farmer-Labor, Minnesota; Laguardia, Republican, New York and Sinclair, Republican, North Dakota.

The five supporting Maddeu were: King, Michaelson and Reid, Illinois, and James and Woodruff, Michigan, all Republicans. On the other hand, Representative Yates, Republican, Illinois, cast a complimentary vote for his colleague, Woodruff is secretary of the Progressive bloc.

A roll call by states at the outset of the house session disclosed that there were 418 of the 435 members present. Of these 220 were Republicans and 195 were Democrats, and three scattering. One of the 12 Democrats absent on the first roll call appeared later, and his vote enabled Garrett to take the lead on the third ballot.

There was more than the usual confusion and milling on the floor as many members greeted each other for the first time since last March 4. Galleries were crowded long before the fight over the speakership began, and there was little decrease in attendance before the house adjourned after a four hour session.

Although there was little prospect of a preliminary battle in the senate the galleries there also were crowded with many unable to gain admission. Mrs. Coolidge, wife of the president, with a party of friends occupied the presidential seats. She returned to the white house immediately after adjournment and just as the contest in the house was getting underway.

Cummings in Chair
Senator Cummings of Iowa, the president pro tem, called the senate to order at the stroke of 12 o'clock.

After a prayer by the chaplain, the newly-elected senators and those returned for another term took the oath of office which was administered by Senator Cummings. This ceremony completed, Senator Lodge of Massachusetts, the Republican leader offered and the senate adopted resolutions providing for the appointment of a joint committee of the house and senate to notify the president that congress was in session and for formal notification to the house that the senate was ready to proceed to business.

Resolutions on the deaths of Senators Nelson of Minnesota, Dillingham of Vermont, and Nicholson of Colorado, were then adopted and the senate adjourned out of respect to their memory. It will meet again at noon tomorrow.

Only four senators failed to attend the opening session. They were LaFollette, of Wisconsin, who is ill at his home here; Caraway, Democrat, Arkansas, at Sterling and Norbeck, Republicans, South Dakota.

Democrats Organize
Before the senate session the Democrats in caucus perfected their organization with the election of Senator Robinson of Arkansas, as chairman of the caucus and party leaders. Vice-Senator Underwood of Alabama.

Senator Walsh of Montana, was re-elected vice-chairman. Senator Gerry of Rhode Island, whip, and Senator King, of Utah, secretary. These candidates were chosen for senate offices.

President pro tem, Senator Pittman of Nevada; secretary, Edwin A. Halsey of Virginia; sergeant-at-arms, John J. Burns, of New York.

MRS. JESS HEARD IN RECITAL HERE

Former Jacksonville Resident Delighted Audience with Interpretive Art—Program Given at College of Music

The proceeds of the recital given by Mrs. Grace Wood Jess at Music Hall Monday night, were contributed to the I. W. C. endowment fund by Mrs. Jess. It was a privilege for the people of Jacksonville to again have the opportunity of hearing one of Mrs. Jess' unique programs. Mrs. Jess is one of the few interpretive artists who dress up, powder and puff the songs they present until by the transformation wrought by different costumes, head-dresses and slight variations in simple stage settings, they prepare the ear of the audience thru the eye, for the message of the moment.

Who shall assert that the message of any one of the arts is lessened by an appeal to several senses rather than by its appeal to a single sense? Mrs. Jess is ever on the qui vive to add to her repertoire the good of every land in the field of folk lore which she makes her own line of work.

Of the numbers offered last night, the first six have never before been given to a home audience; for when Mrs. Jess comes before a Jacksonville audience she is singing to "home folks," and many who were present last night brought with them an interest in the program as it has previously appeared in print, was followed. Two of the selections, "The Sixteenth Century French Song," and "The Legendary Episodes, from the Life of Jesus," were given by special request; while the "Swing Low, Sweet Chariot" was sung for one alone in the audience and therefore came home to others with special force.

The Russian song "Child May Dear God Pity" was so exquisitely done that the entire audience was hushed into a deep eloquence of sympathy with a stricken mother, that spoke far more eloquently of the singer's success in conveying her message than did the applause which broke in upon the sorrowing silence.

To those whose privilege it has been formerly to hear Mrs. Jess, there remains the memory of

PEOPLE ASKED TO LOOK FOR SIGNALS

At the city council meeting last night a boulevard stop signal device, which is being promoted by two agents in the city, was exhibited and discussed by the aldermen. The device is comparatively inexpensive, and it is planned to get the opinion of the people on its practicability.

The signal, which rests on the pavement at the street intersection, is to be placed today at the corner of West College avenue and South Prairie street, and motorists are asked to watch for it and follow its directions. Those who observe the signal are urged to report their opinion of it to the mayor and city council, so that some idea of how it would work in Jacksonville may be gained.

UNIVERSITY PLANS TO MAKE ATHLETICS PART OF EDUCATION

Would Make Participation by All Students Compulsory

URBANA, Ill., Dec. 3. (AP)—Recognition of athletics as an integral part of a college education was recommended to the senate of the University of Illinois by President David Kinley today in submitting the report of a committee which has been formulating a definite athletic policy for the University.

Compulsory participation of every student in some form of athletics or physical education thru all four years of his college career with credit toward a degree for playing in an intercollegiate or intramural sport or taking corrective gymnastics, is one of the provisions of the plan. At present all freshmen men and all freshmen and sophomore women are required to take physical education and hygiene with participation in the intramural athletics of the school on a voluntary basis. Last year more than 6,000 men and 1,500 women were engaged in such sports.

The report also recommends a closer relation between the athletic association of the university and the general scholastic organization. Faculty members are included in the provisions of the recreational plan which provides that "facilities for corrective work and physical exercise be provided for members of the teaching and administrative staff."

Intercollegiate athletics would not be expanded beyond their present basis for the time being, but participation in such sports "would be retained as a proper stimulus and reward for success in intramural athletic sports."

The report was made after investigation by a committee of 14 professors and alumni, none of whom are connected with the coaching staff. Professor E. J. Townsend head of the department of mathematics is chairman of the body.

40-8 STAGE GRAND TIME AT INITIATION

Fifteen New Members Added to Roster Following Oyster Supper—Election of Officers Held—Many Visitors Present

The 40 hommes et 8 chevaux society of the American Legion spent Monday evening in a very strenuous fashion at the Legion hall. They first prepared themselves for the ordeal by partaking of an elegant feed of oysters at 6 o'clock after which they were prepared for what was to follow, which, according to some of the Poor Goofs, must have been plenty.

After the members and Goofs had lined up for chow, the victims were lined up for their first Rooker drill thru the rain around the streets of the city accompanied by members with wheelbarrows, stretchers, etc., to take care of the fallen, while the faltering were taken care of by means of pitchforks and other such gentle persuaders, the parade being put on about 7:30 o'clock.

On their return to the hall, 15 victims were put thru about every form of initiation that the fertile brains of a bunch of former Doughboys could concoct, some of the victims surviving the ordeal temporarily, but time will tell. Those who started over the top were: Hugh D. Carroll, Pittsfield; Harry Goodman, Cobden; David A. Morgan, Nilwood; J. H. Spence, Harry Stringer and John Poirer, Murrayville; Harry H. Herrington, Stephen M. Paine, Marcus D. Smith, Hayden Walker, C. E. Whitmore, W. H. Weirich, F. E. Wannamaker, William D. Young, and T. I. Houston, Jacksonville.

The initiation was followed by the annual election of officers, the following being chosen for the coming year:

Chef de Guerre—Homer G. Bradney.
Chef de Train—J. C. Colton.
Commissaire Intendant—Joseph P. Hosp.
Correspondent—F. L. Vannier.
Conducteur—Charles N. Kohl.
Garde des Prisonniers—M. D. Ator, Frank Robinson, Reaugh Jennings.

Garde de la Porte—Morse Updegraff.

The meeting was attended by a good crowd, among them being several members from out of the city who are now engaged with the Service Recognition Board in Springfield. Those attending were J. J. Jaworski, assistant chief clerk, Chicago; W. M. Black, Newton; R. H. Boyd, Decatur; C. J. Litton, Taylorville; W. E. Lazier, (such a name for an ex-soldier!), Rochelle; Fred Cheek, Atlanta; J. C. Colton, Woodson.
After assisting the victims to the different hospitals the members retired to their homes to begin recuperation for the next strenuous battle which will occur some time early in the year.

LECTURE ON ASTRONOMY AT HIGH SCHOOL LAST NIGHT

Prof. Mellich of Wilmette, Ill., gave an illustrated lecture on astronomy at the high school Monday evening. Professor Mellich is a noted astronomer and lecturer in this part of the country. The large collection of slides which were shown included photographs and drawings, some of which were made by Prof. Mellich while he was a student under Prof. Barnard.

The lecture was given under the auspices of the Illinois College astronomy class, and the proceeds will go toward the purchase of a small telescope for the use of the students. Professor Mellich, aside from being a student and lecturer, is also a telescope manufacturer and will have charge of the making of the instrument for the college.

All who attended felt well repaid, not only because of the interesting nature of the lecture, but also because of the quality and quantity of slides shown.

BARRELS OF WINE SECURED IN RAID

Sheriff Forces made Huge Haul at Farm Home of George Maier—More Than 500 Gallons Confiscated.

As the result of a raid made Sunday by Sheriff Wright and his deputies, more than 500 gallons of wine were confiscated at the country home of George Maier a short distance north of the city. Ten barrels of wine were hauled by truck and placed in the basement of the Morgan county jail building.

Monday Mr. Maier gave bond in the sum of $1,000 to guarantee his appearance at the January term of the county court. For months past there have been complaints that wine was being sold on the Maier farm and State's Attorney Robinson and the sheriff's office have united in the effort to secure evidence.

Recently evidence which the authorities deemed fully sufficient to warrant arrest was secured and as a result the Sunday raid was planned. The Maier home was many years ago the site of a brewery and the huge cellar, which was a part of the brewery, is still in existence. The barrels of wine, together with numerous jugs, were found in the cellar.

An investigator for the sheriff's office is said to have purchased wine from Mr. Maier Saturday night. Immediately afterward this sample was taken to a chemist in accordance with arrangements made by State's Attorney Robinson. Analysis showed that the liquor contained about 15 per cent alcohol. In addition to the evidence resulting from this special purchase, it is understood that the state has other evidence which will be produced when the case comes to trial.

The quantity of liquor confiscated breaks all previous records for seizure of liquor in this locality.

Miss Amy Onken of Chapin was a Jacksonville visitor yesterday.

CITY PROVIDES TO PAY IN LIPSMIRE CASE

Tax Levy Will Carry Money to Pay Damages in Personal Injury Case—May Grant State's Request in Detaching Land—Officers Reports.

Members of the city council held the regular session Monday night with Mayor Crabtree, City Clerk Scott and Aldermen Blesse Chapin, Chumley, Fairbank, McGinnis and Sorrells present. Sheriff Wright served a writ of mandamus to require the council to spread a tax to meet the damages in the Lipsmire case. Later City Attorney Bellatti reported that he had entered the appearance of the city in this case. An ordinance was read with an emergency clause appropriating funds for the case and the ordinance was adopted.

The tax levy ordinance will contain the desired provision: Several weeks ago a petition was presented by the state department of public welfare asking that the city detach certain lands which is a part of the farm tract recently purchased for the use of Jacksonville State Hospital. This matter was taken under advisement by the council and last night the City Attorney was requested to draw an ordinance to detach the land as requested, with the understanding that the state will enter into a written agreement to abate any nuisance which may develop if the land is used for stock raising purposes.

Alderman Chumley recommended a new roof for the city hall as the building is badly in need of repair. The bid of Simeon Fernandes and Son for this work was read and the contract awarded to this firm. Resolutions were read providing for the transfer of money from several funds into the general fund. Plumbers examining board $76; garbage disposal $216.09; oil inspection $13.80; oiling fund $258.75. The Howe street water main fund was transferred to the water department fund and certain North Church street and South Prairie street improvement funds to the special assessment fund.

A number of members of the Automotive Dealers association with the council listened to a statement made about the Cretney traffic guide, manufactured in Madison, Wis., and a trial guide will be placed today at the intersection of West State street and Prairie street.

COHEN WILL CASE IS DISMISSED MONDAY

Miss Goldie Cohen as complainant Withdraws Suit to Break Father's Will, Various Orders Made in Circuit Court Monday.

When the case of Miss Goldie Cohen against her brother Benjamin Cohen et al., came up for trial Monday morning it was announced that the suit had been withdrawn by Miss Cohen. This action came as somewhat of a surprise, as there had been no intimation that the suit would not be tried. In this suit which was filed soon after the death of the complainant's father, Jacob Cohen, the complainant sought to have her father's will set aside.

Among orders made by Judge E. S. Smith Monday were the following:

Law In the assumpsit suit of Irvin Sheppard et al., vs. William T. Dale, motion was entered by the defendant to transfer cause to chancery docket and for leave to file bill in chancery upon payment of costs.

F. Sternburg vs. Mud Creek Drainage district, stipulation by parties to suit that pleas filed December 1 be withdrawn and the case tried upon general issue.

In the case of Martin Cosgriff vs. J. L. Proffitt, appeal from J. AMERICAN LEGION TO ELECT OFFICERS

The annual election of officers will be held tonight at the regular meeting of Jacksonville Post, American Legion. This is one of the most important meetings of the year and it is hoped that the members will turn out in large numbers. Charles N. Kehl, who has served for the past year as post commander, has been very active in American Legion affairs and has had the hearty support of the other officers of the post in various undertakings during the year. It is understood that while there have been no active campaigns for members to secure office, that quite a good deal of interest is felt in the outcome of the election.

If You Need a Medicine
You Should Have the Best

Have you ever stopped to reason why it is that so many products that are extensively advertised, all at once drop out of sight and are soon forgotten? The reason is plain—the article did not fulfill the promises of the manufacturer. This applies more particularly to a medicine. A medicinal preparation that has real curative value almost sells itself, as like an endless chain system, the remedy is recommended by those who have been benefited, to those who are in need of it.

A prominent druggist says, "Take for example Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, a preparation I have sold for many years and never hesitate to recommend, for in almost every case it shows excellent results, as many of my customers testify. No other kidney remedy has so large a sale."

According to sworn statements and verified testimony of thousands who have used the preparation, the success of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is due to the fact, so many people claim, that it fulfills almost every wish in overcoming kidney, liver and bladder ailments, corrects urinary troubles and neutralizes the uric acid which causes rheumatism.

You may receive a sample bottle of Swamp-Root by Parcel Post. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., and enclose ten cents; also mention this paper. Large and medium size bottles for sale at all drug stores.

Quantities.

Many times a hostess is puzzled as to how much to prepare for her guests. Of course the source of occasion enters into this very largely. For instance, a smaller portion of salad will be served with sandwiches at an afternoon tea than the same salad served with lettuce at a luncheon.

These calculations may help you: One quart of whipping cream will whip to serve 25 persons with one large spoonful. Whipped cream for chocolate would serve 30 cups.

One-half pound coca will make 25 serving cups of chocolate. This will require about four quarts of milk.

One quart of cream is calculated to serve from six to eight persons. A brick cuts ordinarily into six portions, but seven or eight can be made if served with cake.

Sandwiches, made from sandwich loaf, 48 slices to a loaf. These are cut in thirds or halves. One pound of butter will spread sixty whole sandwiches. Three pints of filling will make 60 sandwiches.

Weights and Measures. One large layer cake is calculated to serve from 12 to 16 persons. If several kinds of cake are served the cake should be cut in small portions.

One quart of salad serves 6 to 8 persons, varying with the service and occasion.

Four pounds of chicken after stewing make one quart of salad.

Three pounds fresh salmon are calculated to make salad for 25 persons.

Three one-pound cans of shrimps make salad for 25.

One quart hot bouillon serves 30 persons.

Three pints of chopped meat are calculated to make croquettes for 25 persons.

Oysters—By number for stew, four to a person; raw, four to six to a person; in cream sauce combined with mushrooms, 150 for 25; chopped in made dishes, two and one-half to three quarts with the liquor.

Averages Only. It must be remembered that these are rough estimates for the average occasion. They may serve to help you to compute the quantities needed for your own special needs.

In planning for a large dinner, if the cook calculates on the basis of her needs for her own family, she can arrive at a fair conclusion.

In making over receipts be sure to keep the proportions the same, double every ingredient if you are making twice the rule. In the matter of cakes it is better to make two ordinary ones than one extra large one. This is true of any dish that requires a large amount of beating.

In the case of chafing-dish cookery, two chafing dishes normally filled are preferable to one overfilled.

The length of time required to cook large quantities is increased to some extent, but not in proportion to the increase in the rule.

WHEAT ACREAGE
REDUCTION ASKED

Chicago.—A 10,000,000 surplus in wheat acreage was noted in the report adopted by the Production committee of the Wheat Council of the United States at its meeting here recently. The opinion that the present acreage of 62,000,000 planted acres should be gradually reduced to approximately 50,000,000, which the committee believes is an acreage sufficient to care for domestic requirements was expressed in the report.

Such re-adjustment should be made as fast as profitable alternative crops can be introduced, the report said. The average annual consumption of wheat in this country during the past twelve years for food, feed and seed has been about six bushels per capita, the population of the United States is approximately 110,000,000 so that the domestic requirements are not more than 660,000,000 bushels. Statistics show that for the same period the average yield per acre planted is about 13.4 bushels. Thus about 50,000,000 acres planted should yield enough to meet domestic needs. To meet the requirement of increasing population from year to year additional wheat should be obtained from larger yields per acre rather than by the expansion of acreage, the report says.

In recommending the planting of 10,000,000 acres of wheat lands to other crops and urging definite extension programs looking toward reducing wheat acreage wherever an alternative crop or type of farming can be found profitable the report states that better opportunities for making readjustments exist in the humid areas than in the sub-humid sections.

"It is not desirable to enter upon a drastic wheat acreage reduction campaign without reference to alternatives," the report continues. "But even the farmer in the sub-humid regions where the great bulk of our wheat is produced, could aid materially in reducing the present acreage by planting a part of this wheat acreage to feed, forage, and pasture crops and thru summer fallowing. The feed thus produced can be utilized to advantage by feeding it to dairy cows, hogs, chickens, turkeys, etc. The kind and number, of course, will be determined by the adaptability of the individual farmer's plant and by his likes and dislikes. It would be to the advantage of every wheat farmer to produce sufficient milk, butter, poultry and meat to feed his own family and to provide for other necessary living expenses. In this way, money secured from the sale of wheat, his cash crop, would be available for use in reducing mortgages, bringing about better living conditions on the farm and generally making country life more attractive."

ZUPPKE IS AFTER ANOTHER BIG TEN GAME FOR ILLINI

Will Not Play the Navy Unless a Better Date is Arranged

URBANA, Ill., Dec. 3.—Negotiations for a fifth conference game on Illinois' 1924 football schedule were opened today when Coach Bob Zuppke attempted to secure a date with Purdue University. Both Illinois and Purdue have open dates on October 25 and November 15 and it is the hope of the Illini coach to arrange a game for one of these dates.

Illinois will probably not play the Navy unless a better date than Oct. 11 can be arranged. Coach Zuppke is unwilling to take his team east at that time only a week before the Michigan game which from present appearances will be the hardest on the season's schedule.

Unless the Annapolis authorities will consent to a game on one of the two open dates which Illinois now has, the affair will probably be dropped.

Indiana is another possible figure in the Illini schedule, as it has open dates also on October 25 and November 15, while there is a possibility of a game with Wisconsin on October 11 in case the Navy date falls thru.

Nebraska, which appeared on the Illinois schedule for the first time in several decades this year, is also considered as a possible opponent again next season. Both Coach Zuppke and Coach Fred Dawson of the Cornhuskers, were well satisfied with the game this year, scheduled instead of an early season "set up" to "stretch" their men, and the arrangement may be continued if a date can be made.

HUGGINS IS IN MARKET FOR PLAYERS

NEW YORK, Dec. 3.—Miller Huggins, manager of the World's champion New York Yankees declared today that while he expected to stand pat on his present line-up for the 1924 campaign, he was open to any deal which might strengthen the club.

Huggins asserted he would bid for the services of Urban Shocker, St. Louis pitcher, if the Browns put him on the market.

Waivers have been asked on Carl Mays, Huggins revealed. He said all American League Clubs had waived but three National League teams had filed claims for the "submarine ball" twirler.

Huggins said he also was in the market for a right-handed hitting outfielder.

DAUBERT OFFERED JOB AS MANAGER
St. Paul, Minn., Dec. 3.—Jake Daubert, first baseman with the Cincinnati Nationals has been offered the management of the St. Paul American association baseball club to succeed Mike Kelley, who has gone to Minneapolis, it was reported here today.

NEW METHOD OF SELECTING OFFICIALS

Western Conference Will Have Special Committee to Select all Officials—Four Officials Will be Named for Each Game.

CHICAGO, Dec. 3.—(A. P.)—Selection of officials for 1924 western conference football games is to be taken out of the hands of the coaches and handled by a "Big Ten" committee, similar to the system by which major league baseball umpires received assignments. Professor Ralph W. Aigler of the University of Michigan and Professor B. J. Lambert of the University of Iowa, together with Major John L. Griffith, commissioner of athletics will form the committee to choose all officials for all games, instead of having them selected by the respective coaches.

The committee, Major Griffith said tonight, will meet here soon to make an approved list from names submitted by conference athletic directors. From this list four officials for each game will be designated by the committee for the 1924 season.

Under the new management the football officials will carry the authority of the faculty committee of the Big Ten and will not be responsible to coaches or directors of athletics.

Having been chosen without reference to the rival coaches the officials, it is felt will represent the authority of the Big Ten and disputes over rulings will be largely avoided.

The faculty committee decided on the new plan as a result of the demonstration which followed a decision of the Michigan-Wisconsin game.

Some older conference coaches it was said were responsible for the suggestion.

BY BILLY EVANS

Perhaps no one is a better judge of a football player than a coach. That is his business, sizing up the weakness and strength of the players.

In order to get the best possible selection for an All-Western Conference team I requested the "Big Ten" coaches to send me their first team selections with the understanding that their names were not in any way to appear in connection with the result. The desire was to get a composite selection from the men who know.

Eight of the 10 coaches complied with my request. One wired that he didn't have a worthwhile opinion on the subject. It was impossible to get in touch with the remaining one, as after the season was over he hurried away for a rest.

The coaches were a unit in their selection of five players for the All-Western Conference eleven. Halfbacks Grange of Illinois and Martineau of Minnesota each polled eight votes. Below of Wisconsin and McMillen of Illinois were the unanimous choice for a tackle and a guard, while Blott, of Michigan received a solid vote for the center job.

One coach said that if Blott's injury which kept him out of the final game of the season disqualified him he liked King of Chicago as second choice.

In selecting all-star teams, players who fail to take part in every game are often dropped from consideration.

For the ends, Eklund of Minnesota and Hancock of Iowa received the call. Only one coach failed to name Eklund.

The coaches were very much divided in selecting running mates for Tackle Below of Wisconsin and Guard McMillen of Illinois. Unanimous in the choice of those two players the eight famous mentors differed widely in their selection for the other side of the line.

Muirhead of Michigan, with four votes, won the tackle position, while Bieberstein of Wisconsin, with three votes, gets the other guard.

There was a desire on the part of many of the coaches to place Kipke in the backfield. However, Martineau and Grange were considered better halfbacks than Kipke. Four coaches placed Kipke at quarter and one at fullback.

There was also a wide difference of opinion as to fullback. Taft with four votes winning the honor. One of the coaches placed Taft at an end and used Workman at fullback.

In several cases the coaches were unable to agree on one player for a certain position. One coach in making his end selections said he liked either Irish of Wisconsin, Lampe of Chicago or Curran of Michigan equally well.

The selections made by the Big Ten coaches show what a difficult matter it is to pick an eleven that will meet with universal approval. No two of the eight coaches selected exactly the same team.

One coach explained this feature by saying that often a certain player plays brilliantly against one team and the following Saturday may slump in his work. Thus the two coaches see him under entirely different conditions.

ILLINI WILL INSIST MIDDIES PLAY IN ILLINOIS STADIUM

CHICAGO, Dec. 3.—The University of Illinois eleven, if it accepts a game with the Navy next fall will insist that the Middies play in the new Illinois Stadium in 1925, football officials said here tonight. Illinois may engage the navy in the east on October 11, a week before the Michigan-Illinois game. If the game is arranged, it will be the first time in twenty years that the Illini have made a trip east.

BADGERS HOPE FOR NOTRE DAME GAME

MADISON, Wis., Dec. 3.—Wisconsin is still negotiating for a game with Notre Dame football team next fall and negotiations are expected to be completed by Wednesday or Thursday, Athletic Director T. E. Jones of the Badgers stated tonight. It was indicated that a proposition for a game here in November has been put up to Coach Knute Rockne, and the Badger coaches are awaiting returns from the proposal.

Both Notre Dame and Wisconsin have open dates on October 11 and November 8.

COVINGTON TO LEAD CENTRE TEAM

Danville, Ky., Dec. 3.—Herbert Covington, quarterback of Mayfield, Ky., today was elected captain of the Centre football team for 1924. Recognized as one of the south's greatest all-time broken field runners, Covington has been Centre's chief gridiron scorer the last two years.

MINNESOTA'S ASSISTANT FOOTBALL COACH RESIGNS

Minneapolis, Minn., Dec. 3.—Ray Elliott, assistant football coach at the University of Minnesota has resigned, it was announced today. He is considering offers from several eastern institutions which he did not name. Elliott came to Minnesota two years ago from Nebraska.

ZBYSKO WON FROM SCHIKAT

New York, Dec. 3.—Wladek Zbysko tonight defeated Richard Schikat in the feature bout in a wrestling carnival in 2:09:50 when the pain from a toe hold forced Schikat to quit.

The little brown jug goes to Michigan again, and we suppose none will begrudge the Minnesota boys a little brown jug, if they feel that way about it.

The Nut Cracker

Jury decides it's all right to hit a player in the head with a golf ball. . . . But please remember to replace all scalps and toupees.

It is not a wise thing to make a practice of hitting golfers in the head with golf balls. . . . It costs too much to replace the balls.

Report that Hornsby will play with Cubs is absurd, says Chicago manager, who has a peculiar idea as to what constitutes an absurdity.

The experts announce the discovery of an Indian player greater than Jim Thorpe. . . . Which shows the experts are beginning to crack under the strain.

Someone should tell the Illinois football star who wants to meet Dempsey that open-field running is not permitted in the ring.

To college authorities the sport is everything and the winning or losing of a championship means nothing. . . . That's why coaches who fail to produce winners are always respectfully dismissed.

Jack Dempsey is said to be a great marksman and the way he invariably brings down the dollar mark convinces us he is.

Wisconsin state law compels manufacturers to put identification labels on cheese, but such a procedure is unnecessary in the wrestling business.

However, the cheese label law will prevent a lot of embarrassment. . . . In the future you will be able to tell it is limburger by the tag.

The difficulty is not in picking the best football team of the year but in getting somebody to agree with you.

The little brown jug goes to Michigan again, and we suppose none will begrudge the Minnesota boys a little brown jug, if they feel that way about it.

SHOCKER CARRIED HIS FIGHT FOR RELEASE TO LANDIS

Says His Liberty Had Been Infringed Upon

CHICAGO, Dec. 3.—(A. P.) —Urban Shocker, of the St. Louis Browns, one of the greatest pitchers in the American League today carried his fight to be declared a free agent to Commissioner Landis on the plea that his liberty had been infringed upon because officials of the St. Louis club had refused him permission to have his wife accompany him on a trip with the club.

Shocker was fined $1,000 and suspended September 12, when he refused to join the Browns on their last eastern trip of the season after being denied permission to take his wife along. Shocker asks that Commissioner Landis have the $1,000 fine refunded, his salary paid from September 12 to the end of the season and be declared a free agent.

The St. Louis pitcher won 20 games and lost 12 during the 1923 season. He appeared with his attorney while business manager William Friel and an attorney represented the Browns. For two hours argument, Commissioner Landis requested the Browns attorney to file an answer to Shocker's charges with the understanding that the pitcher's attorney would be given time to offer testimony in rebuttal.

After the hearing it was strongly intimated that Shocker, if Commissioner Landis should rule against him, would carry the case into court.

President Johnson of the American League said tonight the case was one for the St. Louis Club to decide, as it has a right to discipline players for any infraction of rules.

BO MCILLAN AFTER BETTER FOOTBALL GAMES

Market Report

By The Associated Press

MANY STOCKS DROP POINT OR MORE

FINANCIAL
Total stock sales 1,076,300 shares.
Twenty industrials averaged 92.63; net loss .32.
High 1923 105.38; low 85.76
Twenty railroads averaged 83.75; net loss .20.
Total bond sales par value $10,217,000.

NEW YORK, Dec. 3—Heavy profit-taking by professional traders who apparently acquired large lines of stock at materially lower prices immediately impaired a reactionary trend to today's stock market after an initial display of strength. Selling was influenced largely by the progressive bloc's tactics at the opening of congress and speculative uncertainty as to the outcome of the British general election on Thursday.

The reaction was most pronounced in such speculative favorites as Baldwin, American Can, Davidson Chemical and the Pan-American issues, each of which showed a net loss of 2 or more points on the day. Studebaker and United States Steel common each dropped about a point.

Opening strength in which sales of 1 to 3 points were common was attributed to the optimistic business forecast for 1924 made by E. H. Gary, chairman of the United States Steel corporation. Studebaker and American Can touched new highs on the current upswing.

Widespread circulation of private reports that the LaFollette group would block the election of a speaker brought a flood of offerings to the floor around the end of the first hour, many of which apparently acting on the theory that the technical condition of the market which has been raising almost steadily since October 31, warranted a reaction at this time, regardless of developments at Washington.

There were several conspicuous exceptions to the downward trend. Maryland was run up more than five points to 32 1/2, dropping back later to 32 1/2.

The decline in the rails was less pronounced than in the industrials.

Call money opened at 5 per cent, softened to 4 1/2 and thence to 4 1/4, where it closed. Time money and commercial paper rates were unchanged at 5 to 5 1/4 per cent.

Moderate improvement was registered by active U. S. Government bonds.
